SELLS RANCH AND ELOPES.

Wealthy Sutter County Resident Sought for By Deserted Wife.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 30.—Mrs. Robert Johnston, wife of a wealthy farmer of Pleasant Grove, Sutter county, is in this city looking for her husband. Johnston has sold his ranch for $40,000 and is said to have eloped with his sister-in-law, May Metcalf. Besides the proceeds of the sale of his ranch Johnston has taken with him his ten-year-old daughter.

Johnston left his home some days ago after telling his wife that he was called to Sacramento by urgent business. While he was here he was often seen with Miss Metcalf. They passed for brother and sister.

Johnston left here Monday after giving out word that he was going to Tulare county with a band of horses. Miss Metcalf told a different story. She said that she was leaving Sacramento to be married and that Johnston, her brother, was to accompany her.

WARRENTON SUICIDE

my coat. Harry advised me to get out as things looked bad for me and I took his advice and went home and prepared to go to bed.

"I was about undressed when I heard Steinhausen and several of them yelling outside for me. I did not want the building to get into any kind of a mess through the rumpus, so I slipped on my shoes and went outside. I saw Judge Steinhausen, Ransdell and several others coming toward me, some of them cursing in the vilest way you could think of.

"It looked pretty bad for me and I picked up a piece of board and as they came along I struck the first two. The third was Steinhausen and I gave him an overhand cut with the stick and lost it. It seemed to strike him on the chin, and then we clinched. Somebody pulled me off him, but I am positive that I did not bite his chin. There is absolutely no truth in such a story.

"Judd jumped clean through the barber shop window and secured an automatic pistol, and it was only taken from him when he was about three feet from me. He then went to Bob's place and secured his pistol, and just then Bob came along and got it from him. He then disappeared toward the tracks, and that was the last seen of him alive."

Dr. C. E. Linton attended to the victims of the fracas on Sunday morning, and when asked his version of the affair, said:

"My wife and I do not sleep very far from the hall where the celebration was held and we could hear the row quite plainly. I dressed myself and got up, expecting trouble.

"The men kept coming in to have black eyes, cut mouths and other wounds fixed until I thought the whole town must have been in the engagement that had taken place. While I was attending to some of the wounded one man ran in and told us that Abbott had shot himself, so I hurried out and found him lying on the tracks. I placed my hand on his heart and found that he was dead."

"Where was the marshal all this time?" he was asked.

"He was hiding under his bed all the time and never got out until 10 o'clock Sunday morning, and you can print that over my signature," declared Dr. Linton.

The remains of young Abbott will be laid to rest today in Ocean View cemetery, and there will be a large attendance at the funeral. Numerous hand-some wreaths have been purchased by the friends of the deceased, who hadn't an enemy in the world. He was insured for $3000, of which $2000 was in the A. O. U. W., and the rest in the Equitable, all in favor of his parents, who live in Warrenton.

Mrs. Collins, his sister, and Ned Abbott, a brother, of Rainier, arrived on the noon train yesterday to attend the funeral.

OREGON LIVE STOCK.

PORTLAND, Sept. 30.—Eugene has made a record for progress and has set a pattern for all the cities under ten thousand population for the entire Pacific Coast. She has built a first-class, hard surface pavement for the depot entirely through business district and has contracts for double that amount. Her new electric cars equal those to be seen in larger cities. She has raised a twelve thousand dollar advertising fund and will employ an expert at $5000 a year to handle her publicity.

At the request of the Oregon Development League, Mr. G. A. Westgate, Secretary of the Portland Country Club and Live Stock Association—the Pacific National Show—has compiled the following on the subject of Oregon live stock:

"To follow President Newell's hundred words on Oregon fruit with a brief statement about Oregon live stock brings the realization that Mr. Newell has produced a classic. Still, Oregon has won almost as many honors in live stock, enough to convince the great packers of America that the packing plants for the Northwest, Alaska, the Orient, and all lands touching the Pacific, will be built in Oregon. There are many more millions of profit immediately within reach in this State through the live stock industry, than in connection with any other industrial effort.

"Remember this, Oregon owns the prize dairy cow of the world, and the first prize herd of Shorthorns, as shown at St. Louis. Oregon horses, sheep and swine are also winners factors in the production of the best of the four footed.

"Oregon offers the live stock breeder economy in feed, continuous growth, early maturity, quality and soundness, with the world for a market. Double your money in live stock while your fruit trees are growing."

Sixteen thousand nine hundred twenty-five leaflets inviting people will be distributed to the public schools of Portland today and tomorrow to go out in letters written by the pupils. This plan should be followed by every community in the State of Oregon.

A party of seven Hawaiian young ladies will be entertained at Portland Saturday. They are chaperoned by Mrs. Elvith Tozier Weathered, well-known to the people and especially to the newspaper fraternity of Oregon.

The Second Eastern Oregon District Agricultural Society will give its 17th Annual Fair at The Dalles October 8-12, Wednesday, October 9th, has been decided upon for Portland Day and the attendance promises to be large.

HOW TO RELIEVE CATARRH—TELLS OF PRESCRIPTION EASILY PREPARED AT HOME, TO GIVE PROMPT RELIEF.

The coming months will be a harvest for the doctors and patent medicine manufacturers unless great care is taken to keep the feet dry, also dress warmly.

This is the advice of a well-known authority and should be heeded by all who are subject to rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles and especially catarrh. While the latter is considered by most sufferers an incurable disease, there are few men or women who will fail to experience great relief from the following simple home prescription, and if taken in time it will prevent an at## tack of catarrh during the entire season.

Here is the prescription which any one can mix: Fluid Extract Dandelion one-half ounce, Compound Kargon one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

There are mostly vegetable ingredients and can be obtained from any good description pharmacy at small cost.

The Compound Kargon in this prescription acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys to make them filter and strain from the blood, the poisons that produce all forms of catarrhal affections. Relief is often felt even after the first few doses and it is seldom that the sufferer ever experiences a return attack within the year.

This prescription makes a splendid remedy for all forms of blood disorders and such symptoms as lame back, bladder weaknesses and rheumatism pains are entirely dispelled.

As this valuable, though simple, recipe comes from a thoroughly reliable source, it should be heeded by every afflicted reader.
